Chammas & Marcheteau advises Tertium Invest on the transfer of the management of its funds to Axio Capital (Funds/Financial Services)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised Tertium Invest, an independent management company based in Marseille, in connection with the takeover by Axio Capital of the management of its two investment vehicles and of the Obligations Relance portfolio it managed, as well as the integration of its investment team into Axio Capital.

Founded in 2012, Tertium Invest is one of the few independent growth and buyout capital managers based in the Provence-Alpes-Côte d'Azur region. It successively raised the SCR Tertium and the FPCI Tertium Croissance, a 2018 vintage fund, backed in particular by institutional investors as well as by local entrepreneurs and families. These two vehicles hold around ten regional SMEs, including Eeworx, Reactis, Kokoon, La Cave à Truffes, Jocatop and Alliance Marine.

This transaction enables Axio Capital, an independent management company already present in Paris and Nantes, to expand into the South-East of France with the opening of an office in Marseille. Tertium Invest's founders and its investment director are joining Axio Capital to continue supporting the portfolio companies and to invest in new SMEs in the Région Sud, drawing on the support functions and resources of their new manager.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Jérôme Chapron (partner), Julien Lallemand and Alexandre Privat (associates).
