Chammas & Marcheteau advises Supernova Invest and Bpifrance on Wormsensing's €9.5 million fundraising (Industry/Deeptech)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised Orano Venture Fund, managed by Supernova Invest, as lead investor, and Bpifrance, through the French Tech Seed fund (France 2030) it manages on behalf of the French State, in connection with Wormsensing's €9.5 million Series A funding round. The round also included the participation of the Fonds Régional Avenir Industrie Auvergne-Rhône-Alpes, managed by UI Investissement, as well as existing investors Innovacom, KBC Focus Fund and CEA Investissement.

Founded in 2020, Wormsensing develops monitoring solutions that enable manufacturers to anticipate failures, control their processes and monitor production quality, thereby generating gains for its customers through fewer unplanned shutdowns, less material waste and lower energy consumption.

This fundraising will enable Wormsensing to accelerate its development and make its vibration intelligence platform a standard for industrial monitoring, in France and internationally.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Lola Chammas (partner), Arys Serdjanian, Flore-Maxence Le Blanc and Bradley Alet (associates) on transactional aspects, together with Christophe Moreau (partner) and Ambre Francisco (associate) on tax aspects, and Coline Bied-Charreton (partner) and Jéhane Joyez (associate) on employment law aspects, in connection with the due diligence.
