

Chammas & Marcheteau is pleased to announce the addition of two new partners

Chammas & Marcheteau, which will celebrate its 15th anniversary this year, welcomes two new partners to reinforce its LBO and International activities.

Pierre-Louis Sévegrand joins the Firm as a partner. He has over 15 years' experience of private equity transactions notably LBOs for investment funds and companies. Pierre-Louis was previously a partner in international law firms. He advised on the Lampe Berger and Intech Medical LBOs and on the sale of Le Groupil Industrie in 2018.

Julien Naginski is Franco-American and member of the Paris, New York and England & Wales bars. Julien has over 25 years' experience in cross border transactions, principally in Africa, Asia and Oceania, as a private practitioner and as legal director for corporates and investment funds in Paris and London. In 2018, Julien advised Fura Gems Inc. (TSXV) in its mining projects in Africa and Océania, and Beender Petroleum in its acquisition of petroleum assets in Tunisia.

«Our Firm has doubled in size in four years. We are delighted that Pierre-Louis and Julien have joined the partnership, which is in line with the evolution and growth of our clients' needs in our core practice areas and internationally » declares Denis Marcheteau, partner and co-founder.

«The expertise, reputation and positioning of Chammas & Marcheteau provides the ideal solution to reinforce my offer in the lower- and mid-cap segments. I'm delighted to join a team which shares with me the same values of excellence and humanism» comments Pierre-Louis Sévegrand.

«I am very pleased to join the Chammas & Marcheteau partnership. The Firm is a market leader in M&A, LBO and fund structuring and provides high quality services to an increasingly international clientele» adds Julien Naginski.
