Chammas & Marcheteau advises the shareholders of MediReport on its acquisition by Philips (Healthcare/Software)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised the shareholders of MediReport in connection with the acquisition of the company by Royal Philips, the global health technology leader.

Founded by cardiologists more than 30 years ago, MediReport is a leader in cardiovascular information systems (CVIS): its software helps cardiology departments manage their activity and patient data. It is currently used by more than 300 hospitals worldwide.

This transaction enables MediReport and Philips to combine their complementary technologies and expertise to help healthcare providers remove silos along the cardiovascular care pathway, linking data, workflows and clinical teams to deliver more efficient, seamless and patient-centered care.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Nicolas Lecocq (partner), Pierre Rougemond and Antoine Auzoux-Dutheil (associates) on corporate and M&A aspects, Christophe Moreau (partner) and Franck Hallel (associate) on tax aspects, Aude Spinasse (partner) and Constance Parini (associate) on intellectual property aspects, as well as Floriane Maginot (associate) on employment law aspects.

The shareholders of MediReport were also advised by Livingstone Partners (financial advisor) and Alvarez & Marsal (financial vendor due diligence). Philips was advised by Bredin Prat and De Brauw Blackstone Westbroek (legal advisors) and KPMG (financial due diligence).
