

Bow Medical joins the Extens portfolio

Chammas & Marcheteau advises Extens

Chammas & Marcheteau acted as legal advisor to the Fund Extens on the acquisition of Bow Medical, an Amiens based company specializing in medical software development.

Extens, the first European fund dedicated to E-health, acquires Bow Medical as part of a majority LBO transaction. This transaction is partly financed through equity and partly by senior debt arranged by Crédit du Nord and Société Générale.

Bow Medical publishes a software suite for anesthesia, resuscitation and obstetrics services. With the acquisition of this company, Extens intends to build on its expansion in Europe and internationally.

Extens' legal advisor: Chammas & Marcheteau (corporate and contracts: Nicolas Lecocq, partner, Antonin Cubertafond, counsel, Jean-Baptiste Déprez and William Ducrocq-Ferré, lawyers; tax aspects: Christophe Moreau, partner and Jean Torrent, lawyer; IP / IT: Aude Spinasse, partner and Mina Baran, lawyer).

Bow Medical's legal advisor : BGB & Associés.

About Extens

Created in 2014, Extens Développement e-Santé is a sector investment vehicle dedicated to the digital transformation of healthcare. Extens invest tickets from 1 to 7 million euros in profitable or close to SMEs, achieving a turnover of 1 to 20 million euros and having a strong potential for development, especially internationally. Its core business is hospital software, business software for healthcare professionals, home care solutions and health data applications.

About Chammas & Marcheteau

Chammas & Marcheteau assists companies and investment funds with their transactions and development strategies in France and abroad. With 30 specialists in business law, including nine partners, it offers its clients expertise in Mergers & Acquisitions, Private Equity, Funds and Financial Services, Tax, Intellectual Property and Information and Communication Technologies.