

Chammas & Marcheteau advises SIS in its investment in Dessintey.

Chammas & Marcheteau advised Sham Innovation Santé in its investment in Dessintey, alongside Crédit Agricole Loire-Haute-Loire Capital Innovation and a private investor, totaling €1 million.

Created in 2017 in Saint Etienne (France), Dessintey develops intensive rehabilitation technologies to help patients regain autonomy. This fundraising will enable Dessintey to finance its R&D and its marketing campaigns.

Sham Innovation Santé is an innovation capital vehicle controlled and held by Sham, a mutual insurer specialized in risk management for health care, social welfare and community health organizations. Advised by Turenne Capital, Sham Innovation Santé's mission is to support innovative businesses in the health care sector through the growth and development phases of their business.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team was composed of partner Lola Chammas and associate Jérôme Chapron.
