

Chammas & Marcheteau advises Neocase Software on its €6m fundraising

Chammas & Marcheteau advised Neocase Software in its €6 million fundraising led by Entrepreneur Venture, alongside Sofiouest, the company's management team and cornerstone investor Iris Capital.

This fundraising will allow Neocase Software to boost its R&D and sales programs, to expand beyond large enterprise clients to now also serve mid-market companies and to accelerate its international development including in Germany and Scandinavia.

A leading provider of HR service management tools for nearly two decades, Neocase Software has extended its offer and team in key regions to address its clients' needs. With offices and teams in Paris (where the company is headquartered), London, Amsterdam and Boston, Neocase Software is now reinforcing its offer and footprint in the DACH and Scandinavian regions where the company serves clients in the automotive, security and financial services industries.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team was composed of partner Denis Marcheteau and associate Arys Serdjanian.
