

Chammas & Marcheteau advises Teamwill Consulting on its acquisition of Talendo

Chammas & Marcheteau advised Teamwill Consulting on its acquisition of 100% of Talendo's shares.

With nearly 50 employees, Talendo is a management consulting firm specialized in the financial services sector, operating in the business and IT market with a focus on credit and financing. Teamwill Consulting is active in the same sector and this acquisition constitutes a new external growth operation only a few months after Imex (car leasing) and Orca (business tool solutions and mobile applications).

With Anis Chakroun at its head, Teamwill Consulting continues its dynamic growth, allowing its 450 employees to service its clients in redefining their front-to-back processes and integrating the main market software solutions (distribution, granting, management and collection). Already established in Spain, Belgium, Great Britain, Tunisia and Morocco, the company plans to pursue its expansion by developing its customer portfolio within the European Union.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team was composed of partner Nicolas Lecocq and associate Arnaud Estève.
