

Chammas & Marcheteau advises Extens and Elige Capital on their investment in MediReport

Chammas & Marcheteau advised Extens and Elige Capital on their investment in MediReport. This investment will allow MediReport to expand its operations in France and internationally.

Founded in 1995, MediReport is a software and medical information systems publisher specialized in cardiology and sourcing hospitals. With over 20 employees, the company generates half of its turnover abroad and boasts 400 client hospitals in 45 countries. Its software consists of over ten modules from appointment scheduling to post-intervention follow-up.

Created in 2014, Extens is a sector investment vehicle dedicated to the digital transformation of healthcare. Extens invests in profitable or close to profitable SMEs and has strong development potential, particularly internationally. Its core targets are hospital software, business software for healthcare professionals, home patient care solutions and health data applications.

Elige Capital is an investment company with a majority of its shares subscribed to by business leaders and managed by an independent team of investors. Specialized in buy-outs and expansion capital, Elige Capital invests alongside management teams in amounts ranging from €0.5 million to €2.5 million, in both majority and minority stakes.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team was composed of partner Nicolas Lecocq and counsel Jérôme Chapron.
