

Chammas & Marcheteau advises Iris Capital on Forto's $50 million fundraising

Chammas & Marcheteau advised Iris Capital on Forto's $50 million fundraising alongside Inven Capital and existing investors including Rider Global, Northzone, Cherry Ventures and H14.

Forto is a Berlin-based start-up and a digital leader in freight transportation logistics that offers supply chain management solutions used by more than 2,500 customers. These customers benefit from real-time data reception and on-time delivery, while reducing the administrative costs of supply chain management by 30%. These benefits also pave the way for greater accountability through transparent assessment of the emission rates of different transport options. Forto contributes to making world trade faster, easier and more sustainable.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team was composed of partner Denis Marcheteau and associates Romain Penloup and Charles Bourquin.
