

Chammas & Marcheteau advises LBO France in the €15 million Series B financing of Tribun Health (IA/Software/Healthcare)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised LBO France on the Series B financing of Tribun Health. The company has opened up its capital to start-up Owkin and Vivalto Family, who are injecting €15 million alongside the historic investors.

Founded in 2016, Tribun Health is a publisher of AI-based software to help analyse pathologies based on cellular imaging.

With this new funding, the Paris-based company aims to boost its sales abroad, particularly in Northern Europe, Canada and the United States. This is the second transaction of this type for Tribun Health. In 2019, it raised €5 million in a round of financing led by LBO France.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Denis Marcheteau (partner), Arys Serdjanian and Jérémy Lolmède (associates).
