

Chammas & Marcheteau advises Extens and Bpifrance in the LBO of Teranga group (Software/Health)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised Extens and Bpifrance, historical financial investors, in their reinvestment in Teranga group, alongside the founder and key managers.

Founded in 2007, Teranga Software specializes in software solutions for seniors and disabled persons facilities.

With more than 3,500 medico-social establishments and services in France to date, the company expects to see further growth, particularly under the “Ségur” digital health initiative, which aims to accelerate the use of software by healthcare establishments.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Nicolas Lecocq (partner), Pierre Rougemons and Sandie Dion (associates) on corporate aspects, of Christophe Moreau (partner) and Charles Ferrien (associate) on tax aspects.
