

Chammas & Marcheteau advises the sellers of Kepler VO on the acquisition of Kepler VO by Groupe Lacour (Software/Automobile)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised the sellers of Kepler VO, including Kepler VO CEO Alain Domguez and investor FPCI Epopée West Web Valley I, on the acquisition of Kepler VO by Groupe Lacour.

With this transaction, Groupe Lacour, a French publisher of BtoB software for the automotive after-sales sector, launches its external growth plan and aims to reach sales of €50 million by the end of the year.

Founded in 2015 in Nantes, Kepler VO is the publisher of a solution dedicated to the resale of second-hand vehicles. Its platform enables second-hand transport fleets to be managed, as well as tracking sales and administrative and accounting tasks.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Jérôme Chapron (partner) and Nathan Joder (associate) on corporate and M&A aspects, Christophe Moreau (partner) and Charles Ferrien (associate) on tax aspects, and Aude Spinasse (partner) and Constance Parini (associate) on intellectual property aspects.
