

Chammas & Marcheteau advises Sweetch Energy in its €25 million fundraising (Energy/Environment)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised Sweetch Energy in its €25 million fundraising from Crédit Mutuel Impact, Axleo Capital and the company's historical investors, including Demeter, Go Capital Future Positive Capital, EDF and Compagnie Nationale du Rhône.

Founded in 2015, Sweetch Energy is a renewable energy company specialising in osmotic energy, and committed to a carbon neutral world.

The new funding will enable the company to implement numerous projects, including the launch of a first electricity production demonstrator using its INOD® technology in early 2024, the establishment of its initial industrial assembly lines, and the extension of osmotic energy into North America.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Lola Chammas (partner), Arys Serdjanian and Nathan Joder (associates).
