

Chammas & Marcheteau advises Retrofleet in the acquisition of a majority stake by the CBM Group (Sustainable Mobility/Technology)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised Retrofleet, its management and its selling shareholders on the acquisition of a majority stake by the CBM group, the world leader in spare parts for buses and coaches.

Created in 2020, Retrofleet is a specialist in the electric conversion of public and private fleets (road vehicles, industrial machinery and even barges) as well as controlled and solarised recharging.

The operation provides Retrofleet with the necessary resources to roll out its high-volume HGV and coach retrofit industrial capacity and develop its business across Europe.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Lola Chammas and Isabelle Prodhomme (partners), Emmanuelle Turek and Nathan Joder (associates).

About Chammas & Marcheteau

Chammas & Marcheteau is a Paris-based independent law firm that advises companies, investment funds and entrepreneurs on their transactions and development strategies in France and abroad. With 60 specialists in business law, including 14 partners, the Firm offers its clients expertise in Private Equity, Mergers & Acquisitions, Funds and Financial Services, Corporate, Restructuring and Turnaround, Tax, Intellectual Property and Information Technology, Employment Law and Real Estate Law.