

Chammas & Marcheteau advises InnovaFonds on its entry into Fleuret capital (Industry/Defense)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised the flex fund Partenaire Managers I managed by InnovaFonds, a management company with industrial and financial expertise in growth capital and buyout transactions, on its entry into the capital of Fleuret as part of a minority LBO alongside Antoine Larger, CEO of Fleuret, who retains a majority family shareholding.

Founded in 1981, Fleuret is a leading provider of transport and handling solutions for sensitive components in the aerospace and defense industries, based in the Toulouse region.

Fleuret is taking advantage of its new equity and bank debt financing to acquire the Breton group BRC, specialized in technical containers.

With the arrival of InnovaFonds in its capital, Groupe Fleuret, with consolidated turnover of over €20 million, aims to strengthen its strategic development by drawing on the expertise and resources of the incoming fund, notably through external growth operations.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Pierre-Louis Sévegrand (partner) and Sandie Dion (associate) on corporate aspects, of Christophe Moreau (partner) and Marjorie Masoni (associate) on tax aspects, of Coline Bied-Charreton (partner) and Floriane Maginot (associate) on social aspects.
