

Chammas & Marcheteau advises FemuQuì Ventures on Voltaïca's €2.5 million fundraising (Renewable Energy)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised the Corsican investment fund FPCI Travalcà, managed by FemuQuì, in Voltaïca's €2.5 million fundraising.

Founded in 2008, Corsican company Voltaïca is a recognized player in the photovoltaic sector, developing and installing power plants that generate electricity from renewable energy sources.

This funding marks the first step in a €1 billion investment plan by 2030. It will enable Voltaïca to accelerate its growth, notably through the opening of an office in Italy and the deployment of battery storage solutions, while pursuing its ambition to become an independent power producer.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Stéphanie Bréjaud (partner) and Vincent Lopez (associates) on corporate aspects.
