

Chammas & Marcheteau advises Koesio on its largest international acquisition, acquiring a majority stake in Solitium (Digital Services / IT)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised Koesio, France's leading independent provider of local digital services for SMEs and mid-sized companies (€1.2 billion in revenue in 2024), on its majority acquisition of Solitium. This transaction represents the largest international acquisition in the group's history.

Founded in 2005, Solitium is a leading player in Spain in the field of IT services, software, and printing solutions.

This acquisition enables Koesio to strengthen its European presence, increasing its workforce to over 4,500 employees and its client base to more than 150,000 companies. It marks a key milestone in building an integrated European leader.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Christophe Blondeau (partner), Margaux Deuchler, Agathe Delforge and Flore-Maxence Le Blanc (associates).
