

Chammas & Marcheteau advises Bpifrance and MBDA on NanoXplore's €20 million fundraising (Technology/Defense)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised Bpifrance, through its Fonds Innovation Défense, as well as MBDA, in connection with NanoXplore's €20 million capital increase.

Founded in 2010, French company NanoXplore is a leading player in the European strategic electronics ecosystem, specializing in the design and development of highly reliable, radiation-hardened programmable logic circuits for the aerospace, space and defense sectors.

This fundraising will enable NanoXplore to accelerate its diversification and growth into defense markets and to pursue its development strategy in Europe, while contributing to the strengthening of European electronic sovereignty.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Stéphanie Bréjaud (partner) and Jeanne Cormerais (associate) on corporate aspects, of Aude Spinasse (partner) and Constance Parini (associate) on intellectual property aspects, of Coline Bied-Charreton (partner), Floriane Maginot and Ensar Tasci (associates) on employment law aspects, of Christophe Moreau (partner) and Hugo Latrabe (associate) on tax aspects, as well as Eric Métais (partner) and Capucine Vitry (associate) on real estate law aspects.
