

Chammas & Marcheteau advises Extens on the sale of Qoia to the Octime Group (HR software/Healthcare)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised HSW Developpement (an Extens portfolio company) on the sale of Qoia (formerly Horizontal Software) to Octime Group, a developer of HR software solutions specializing in workforce time management and staff replacement.

Founded in 2010, Qoia is a software publisher specializing in time and activity management solutions, supporting large corporations - particularly in the banking, insurance and industrial sectors - as well as healthcare institutions and public-sector bodies.

This transaction will enable Octime and Qoia to establish a leading market player serving healthcare institutions, with the objective of improving organizational efficiency and the quality of care. It is based on the complementarity of their respective areas of expertise and shared values.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team comprised Nicolas Lecocq (partner), together with Pierre Rougemond and Antoine Auzoux-Dutheil (associates).
