

Chammas & Marcheteau advised Extens on the merger of Orthalis and DentalSoft (Software/Healthcare)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised Extens, a leading investor in healthcare software in Europe, in connection with its investment, alongside Bpifrance and BNP Paribas Développement, to support Orthalis in a new phase of growth through its merger with the DentalSoft group. This transaction gives rise to SignalSoft Développement.

The DentalSoft group is a recognized publisher of software solutions dedicated to the management of orthodontic practices. Alongside Orthalis, a leading player in this segment, it contributes to the creation of a market-leading group benefiting from a significant installed base and deep industry expertise in serving sector professionals.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Nicolas Lecocq (partner), Pierre Rougemond, Sandie Dion and Antoine Auzoux-Dutheil (associates) on corporate and M&A aspects, Aude Spinasse (partner) and Constance Parini (associate) on intellectual property aspects, Christophe Moreau (partner) and Franck Hallel (associate) on tax aspects, and Coline Bied-Charreton (partner) and Floriane Maginot (associate) on employment law aspects.

About Chammas & Marcheteau

Chammas & Marcheteau is a Paris-based independent law firm that advises companies, investment funds and entrepreneurs on their transactions and development strategies in France and abroad. With more than 60 specialists in business law, including 16 partners, the Firm offers its clients expertise in Private Equity, Mergers & Acquisitions, Funds and Financial Services, Corporate, Restructuring and Turnaround, Tax, Intellectual Property and Information Technology, Employment Law, Real Estate and Business Litigation.