

Chammas & Marcheteau advises InnovaFonds on its entry into the share capital of SDAG Adhésifs (Distribution/Communication)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised the Flex Partenaire Managers I fund managed by InnovaFonds on its entry into the share capital of SDAG Adhésifs, alongside Bpifrance, as a minority shareholder, with the management team.

Founded in 1985, SDAG Adhésifs is the French leader in the distribution of consumables for professionals in the visual communication and signage sectors, in France and internationally, generating close to €50 million in revenue.

This partnership will enable SDAG Adhésifs to accelerate its international development, further expand its product offering and pursue external growth opportunities.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Pierre-Louis Sévegrand (partner) and Sandie Dion (associate) on transactional and legal due diligence aspects, together with Christophe Moreau (partner) and Franck Hallel (associate) on tax aspects, and Coline Bied-Charreton, Caroline Canavese (partners) and Floriane Maginot (associate) on employment law aspects, in connection with the due diligence.
