

Chammas & Marcheteau advises Safran Corporate Ventures on Aura Aero's €50 million fundraising (Aerospace/Energy)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised Safran Corporate Ventures in connection with Aura Aero's €50 million fundraising, alongside notably Bpifrance, the EIC Fund, Blast, Innovacom, Florida Opportunity Fund and EDF, bringing the company's total funding to €340 million.

Founded in 2018, Aura Aero designs and develops electric and hybrid aircraft dedicated to low-carbon aviation. The company is notably developing ERA, a hybrid-electric regional aircraft, as well as innovative solutions such as INTEGRAL E and the ENBATA drone. It is positioning itself as an emerging industrial player in the European aerospace sector.

This transaction will enable Aura Aero to accelerate its industrial scale-up, finance the development of its key programs, including ERA, and support its international ambitions, particularly in the United States. It will also contribute to the construction of new production capacities and the achievement of major technological milestones, including world firsts in low-carbon aviation.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Lola Chammas (partner), Romain Penloup (counsel) and Nessrine Berrad (associate) on the corporate legal due diligence and the transaction. The legal due diligence also involved Coline Bied-Charreton (partner) and Emmanuel Corbel (associate) on employment aspects, Christophe Moreau (partner) and Hugo Hamet (associate) on tax aspects, Aude Spinasse (partner) and Constance Parini (associate) on intellectual property aspects, as well as Eric Métais (partner) and Capucine Vitry (associate) on real estate aspects.
