

Chammas & Marcheteau advises Azulis Capital on its entry into the share capital of Ceetadel (Media/Communication)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised Azulis Capital in connection with its acquisition of a minority equity stake in Ceetadel, alongside the management team, which retains a majority of the company's capital.

Founded in 2023, Ceetadel is an independent marketing, communications and technology group with 250 employees and revenue of €40 million.

This partnership will enable Ceetadel to accelerate its growth in the technology, data and artificial intelligence sectors, while remaining opportunistic with respect to marketing and communications activities.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Pierre-Louis Sévegrand (partner), Sandie Dion and Antoine Auzoux-Dutheil (associates) on transactional matters and legal due diligence, supported by Christophe Moreau (partner), Franck Hallel and Ambre Francisco (associates) on tax matters, Coline Bied-Charreton, Caroline Canavese (partners), Floriane Maginot and Emmanuel Corbel (associates) on employment law matters, and Eric Métais (partner) and Capucine Vitry (associate) on real estate matters, in connection with the due diligence.
