Chammas & Marcheteau advises Iris on Implicity's €35 million fundraising (Healthcare/Software)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised Iris, lead investor in Implicity's €35 million fundraising, alongside Five Arrows, Rothschild & Co's alternative investment platform.

Founded in 2016, Implicity develops an AI-powered remote cardiac monitoring platform compatible with the leading implantable cardiac devices. It enables medical teams to centralise patient data, reduce non-actionable alerts and optimise clinical monitoring. The company already supports more than 250 medical centres and monitors over 120,000 patients daily across the United States, France and Germany.

This fundraising will enable Implicity to accelerate the expansion of its commercial operations in the United States, strengthen its position in Europe and continue investing in R&D, particularly in its predictive and diagnostic AI algorithms.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Denis Marcheteau (partner) and Jeanne Cormerais (associate) on transactional and legal due diligence aspects, together with Christophe Moreau (partner) on tax aspects, Caroline Canavese (partner), Floriane Maginot and Ensar Tasci (associates) on employment law aspects, and Aude Spinasse (partner) and Constance Parini (associate) on intellectual property aspects, in connection with the due diligence.
