

Chammas & Marcheteau advises the founders and shareholders of Manucurist on Inflexion's entry into its share capital (Beauty/Cosmetics)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised the founders and shareholders of Manucurist on the investment by Inflexion, a European investment firm, which has become a minority shareholder in the company. The two founders and executives (Gaëlle Lebrat Personnaz and Gaël Personnaz) remain the majority shareholders of Manucurist.

Manucurist is a French nail care and polish brand known for its plant-based, nail-friendly formulations. The brand is now distributed in more than 40 countries and continues to expand strongly in the United States and the United Kingdom.

This partnership will enable Manucurist to accelerate its international expansion, particularly in the United States, further develop its distribution network, drive continued growth across digital and marketplace channels, and invest in its teams, systems and new product development.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Denis Marcheteau (partner), Antoine Catala, Jérémie Lolmède and Mattéo Querrec (associates) on corporate aspects, and Christophe Moreau (partner), Franck Hallel, Hugo Hamet and Ambre Francisco (associates) on tax aspects and tax VDD.
